

Attorney-General: THOMAS H. ROBINSON (Democrat),
Belair, Maryland.

Thomas H. Robinson, son of Dr. Samuel S. and Mary C. Robinson, was born on March 2, 1860, in Harford County, Maryland. He received an excellent education and was admitted to the Bar in 1883. Since that time he has actively practiced his profession and has taken a leading part in many important litigations. His law offices have always been at Belair, the county seat of Harford. He has for some years been president of the Second National Bank of Belair.

Mr. Robinson took a leading and active part in three sessions of the Maryland Senate, as Senator from Harford County. He served the Democratic party four times as a delegate to National Convention and was chairman of the Maryland delegation that nominated Governor Cox for President. Mr. Robinson was also chairman of the Maryland delegation to the National Convention in New York, in 1924, which nominated John W. Davis for President. He was chairman of all the Liberty Loans of his district, and chairman of the Council of Defense for Harford County during the World War, and the Secretary of War appointed him on the commission which selected the land (35,000 acres) for the Aberdeen Proving Ground.

Mr. Robinson served on Governor Ritchie's Reorganization Commission. He was a member of the Committee of Eight that actually drafted the plan of State Reorganization, which was adopted by the commission and put into effect by Governor Ritchie. In 1923 he was his party's candidate for Attorney-General of the State and received an overwhelming majority for that office.

Mr. Robinson married, September 17, 1884, Clara C. Cain, also of Harford County. They have five children, one deceased.

The Adjutant General: MILTON A. RECKORD (Democrat),
Harford County.

Milton A. Reckord, the twenty-second Adjutant General of Maryland, was born in Harford County December 28th, 1879. He is the son of the late John H. and Lydia A. Reckord.

General Reckord's connection with the Maryland National Guard dates from February 15th, 1901, when he enlisted as a private in Company D, 1st Infantry. He served as an en-
