

listed man until December 28th, 1904, when he was commissioned Captain of that company.

On September 27th, 1906, he was commissioned a Major of Infantry and assigned to command a battalion of the First Infantry.

He served on the Mexican Border and commanded the Second Battalion of the First Infantry throughout this tour of duty.

Upon the declaration of war with Germany and Austria, General Reckord, then a Major, was ordered with his battalion, to Havre de Grace for the protection of the railroad bridges crossing the Susquehanna River, remaining upon this duty for several months.

On August 4th, 1917, he was commissioned a Lieutenant Colonel of Infantry and assigned to the Fifth Infantry, and in this capacity entered the United States Army with the troops from Maryland and proceeded to concentration camp at Anniston, Alabama. Here the Maryland regiments were consolidated and the 115th Infantry formed to which organization he went as Lieutenant Colonel.

Upon the retirement of Colonel Charles A. Little, General Reckord succeeded to command of the 115th Infantry. In the capacity of Colonel of this regiment he commanded it throughout its training and during its oversea's service and upon return of the regiment from service in France was mustered out with it at Camp Meade, Maryland.

General Reckord has always taken a keen interest in all military matters. He is in business in Bel Air, where his home is located. He is a member of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce, of the Baltimore Club, the Baltimore Athletic Club, and Harford Boat Club.
