Headnotes	Present Constitution	Constitution of 1867	Constitution of 1864
			the interests of the State the said Public Works; the shall perform such othe duties as may be hereafted prescribed by law; and majority of them shall be competent to act.
			The Governor, Comptroller and Treasurer, shall receive no additional salar for services rendered by them as members of the Board of Public Works.
New counties: Creation by General Assembly subject to referendum.	ARTICLE XIII. NEW COUNTIES. Section 1. The General Assembly may provide, by Law, for organizing new counties, locating and removing county seats, and changing county lines; but no new county shall be organized without the consent of the majority of the legal voters residing within the limits proposed to be formed into said new county; and whenever a new county shall be proposed to be formed	ARTICLE XIII. NEW COUNTIES. Section 1. The General Assembly may provide, by Law, for organizing new Counties, locating and removing county seats, and changing county lines; but no new county shall be organized without consent of the majority of the legal voters residing within the limits proposed to be formed into said new county; and be proposed to be formed	ARTICLE X. COUNTIES AND TOWNSHIPS. Section 1. The Gener Assembly may provide forganizing new counties, leading and removing counseats and changing counshall be organized withouthe consent of a majority the legal voters residing within the limits about form said county, nor shall be organized withouthe consent of any county the legal voters residing within the limits about form said county, nor shall be organized without the collaboration of the limes of any county the changed without the collaboration.

NEW COUNTIES.	NEW COUNTIES.
Section 1. The General Assembly may provide, by Law, for organizing new counties, locating and removing county seats, and changing county lines; but no new county shall be organized without the consent of the majority of the legal voters residing within the limits proposed to be formed into said new county; and whenever a new county shall be proposed to be formed out of portions of two or more counties, the consent of a majority of the legal voters of such part of each of said counties, respectively, shall be required; nor shall the lines of any county nor of. Baltimore City be changed without the consent of a majority of the legal voters residing within the district, which under said proposed change, would form a part of a county or of Baltimore City different from that to which it belonged prior to said change; and no new county shall contain less than four hundred square miles, nor less than ten thousand white inhabitants; nor shall any	Section 1. The General Assembly may provide, by Law, for organizing new Counties, locating and removing county seats, and changing county lines; but no new county shall be organized without consent of the majority of the legal voters residing within the limits proposed to be formed into said new county; and whenever a new county shall be proposed to be formed out of portions of two or more counties, the consent of a majority of the legal voters of such part of each of said counties, respectively, shall be required; nor shall the lines of any county be changed without the consent of a majority of the legal voters, residing within the district, which, under said proposed change, would form a part of a county different from that to which it belonged prior to said change; and no new county shall contain less than four less than ten thousand white

in hey her fter be rolrelary by

eral for nty nty nty out of ing hall sent of a majority of the legal voters residing within the limits of the lines proposed to be changed, nor shall any new county contain less than four hundred square miles nor less than ten thousand white inhabitants nor shall any county be reduced below that amount of square miles, nor below that number of white inhabitants.

Constitution of 1851	Constitution of 1776	Amendments to 1776 Constitution
·
1		