

duties herein provided for, he may be removed from office by the Governor. In the event of the death, resignation, refusal to act or removal of the State Auditor the Governor will have the authority to fill such vacancy.

"Section 34. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ORDERS OF COMPTROLLER OR OTHER PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE.

Any clerk of court, register of wills, or collector, any county treasurer or fee officer, and the members of any board of county commissioners or any county treasurer or collector, and any officer of the State Tobacco Warehouse, or of any department, board, commission or institution embraced within the provisions of Section 30 of this article, who shall knowingly fail and refuse to comply with any order or orders which the Comptroller may make and prescribe under the authority of said section, with respect to his office or institution, or who shall knowingly fail and refuse to comply with any other provision of this law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each and every such offense."

NOTE

The Appendix includes an indexed list of every office of the Executive Department, the source of its authority, how its head is appointed and removed, length of term, members and kinds of employees, and a brief statement of the functions of each office.