Headnotes	Present Constitution	Constitution of 1867	Constitution of 1864	Constitution of 1851	Constitution of 1776	Amendments to 1776 Constitution fined to the persons, who on the first ballot shall have had an equal number; and if the ballots should again be equal between two or more persons, then the election of the governor shall be determined by lot, between those who have equal numbers; and if the person chosen governor shall die, resign, remove out of the State, or refuse to act (sitting the general assembly) the senate and house of delegates shall immediately thereupon proceed to a new choice in manner aforesaid.	prescribed by the Constitution and form of government, and the Council the Governor shall be elected on the first Tuesday afte the first monday of Januar in each and every year, it he same manner as is not prescribed by the Constitution and form of government. Proposed by Act of 1836 chapter 197. Ratified 1837. Sec. 19. The term of officion of the Governor, who shall be chosen on the first More day of January next Sec. 20. At the time an places of holding the elections in the several countie of this State, and in the Cit of Baltimore, for delegate to the General Assembly for the December session of the year eighteen hundred an thirty eight, and before the same judges by whom the election for delegates shabe held, and in every thir year forever thereafter, a election shall also be helf or a Governor of this State at which said election every person qualified to the for delegates to the General Assembly, at the place at which he shall offet to vote, shall be entitled to the for Governor; Sec. 22. Of the persor voted for as Governor at an such election, the perso having, in the judgment of the Senate, the highest number of legal votes, and posessing the legal qualifications, and resident as afor said, in the district from which the Governor at such voted to the person of the pers