	held by a judge of said Supreme Bench, either alone or with one or more other judges, in any case or cases or for a specified period, any judge of the Court of Appeals or of any intermediate court of appeal or of any other Circuit Court or of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City. Any judge designated and assigned by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals pursuant to this section shall have all the power and authority pertaining to a judge of the Court to which he is so assigned; and his power and authority shall continue with respect to all cases (including any motions or other matters incidental thereto) which may come before him by virtue of such designation and assignment until his action thereon shall be completed. In the absence of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the provisions of this section shall be applicable to the senior judge present in said Court of Appeals. The powers of the Chief Judge under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be subject to such rules and regulations, if any, as the Court of Appeals may make. The Court of Appeals from time to time shall make rules and regulations to revise the practice and procedure in the appellate courts and in other courts of this State, which shall have the force of law until rescinded, changed or modified by the Court of Appeals or otherwise by law.
