

CONTENTS

	Page
An Analysis of Maryland's Oath of Office as it Relates to the Subversive Activities Act (Ober Law)	324
Impeachment Provisions of State Constitutions	328
History	328
Impeachment Provisions in the United States and Maryland Constitutions	328
National Pattern	329
Impeachment Provisions in other State Constitutions	330
Case Notes	331
Impeachment Provision in the Model State Constitution	332
Conclusion	333
Impeachment Powers of State Legislatures	334
Impeachment Under a Unicameral System	338
IX. AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION
Power of State Legislature to Limit the Powers of a State Constitutional Convention	341
Selection of Delegates to a Constitutional Convention	356
X. MISCELLANEOUS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS
Preservation of State Artifacts	361
Civil Service Provisions in State Constitutions	362
Ordinances and Schedules Including Methods of Transition from the Old Constitution and Government to the New	364
XI. THE CONSTITUTION OF 1776
The Declaration of Rights	369
The Constitution and Form of Government	375
Members of the Convention which Framed the First State Constitution	388
XII. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF 1776	391
XIII. THE CONSTITUTION OF 1851
The Declaration of Rights	413
The Constitution	418
Article I. Elective Franchise	418
Article II. Executive Department	419
Article III. Legislative Department	422
Article IV. Judiciary Department	428
Article V. The State's Attorneys	435
Article VI. Treasury Department	436
Article VII. Sundry Officers	437
Article VIII. New Counties	440