

the said

on account of the said deceased, or estate, and further do make, or cause to be made, a true and just account of said administration, at or before the day of next; and all the rest and residue of the said goods, chattels, and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said administration account, the same being first examined and allowed of by the judge or judges for the time being, of the said court, shall deliver and pay unto the person or persons appointed by law to receive the same: and if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the said deceased, and the executor or executors therein named do exhibit the same into the said court, making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said within bounden,

being thereunto required, do render and deliver the said letters of administration, (approbation of such testament being first had and made) in the said court, then this obligation to be void, and of none effect, or else to remain in full force and virtue.
