

pointed, having first taken an oath, well and truly to administer the said goods, chattels and credits according to the tenor and effect of the said testament, and according to law; and to make or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits which were of the said deceased, at the time of death, together with a list of the debts sperate and desperate which have, may, or shall come to hands, possession or knowledge, appraised in money, as also to render a just and true account of, and upon said administration therein; touching which inventory is presently assigned to perform, or at furthest on or before the day of now next ensuing, and an account within twelve months from the date of these Presents.

Witness the honourable

Esquire, our commissary general and judge for probate of wills, and granting Administrations within the province of Maryland aforesaid, this day of

Anno Domini,

TEST.