

1st. In the case, where no executors are appointed in the will, thus!—Without appointing any executor thereof; We do therefore, &c.—

2d. Where the appointed executor doth refuse to act, thus!—And therein and thereby did constitute a certain
to be his executor thereof, which said since in due form of law renounced, and refused to take upon him the burden of said executorship; We do therefore, &c.

3dly. Where the appointed executor is dead, thus—and therein and thereby did constitute a certain
is since also deceased, as it is said, without taking letters testamentary on said estate; We do therefore, &c.
