

being, for probate of wills &c. do distribute and dispose of according to law, and the true intent and meaning of the last will and testament of the said deceased; and lastly, do at all, and every time and times hereafter, clearly discharge, and save harmless his said lordship, his judges, and all other his officers and ministers, from all persons having or pretending to have any right, title, or interest to the said goods and chattels, that then this obligation to be void, and of none effect; or else to remain in full force and virtue.

No. VI.

Letters of ADMINISTRATION, de bonis non administratis, with a copy of the will annexed.

The Letters and bond applicable to this administration, are of the same form and tenor with those for an administration with a copy of the will annexed, No. 5. Except in the following places, where the insertion runs in this manner.

In the large blank, in the second line of the letters, insert—and therein, and thereby constituted a certain to be his executor thereof, which said took out letters testam-
mentary,