MARYLAND, sc. The right honourable Henry Harford, Esquire, absolute lord and proprietary of the province of Maryland.

To the sheriff of A. B. county, greeting—
We command you, that in all and singular the places within your bailiwick, as well within liberties as without, where you shall find most expedient, you cause public proclamation to be made in our name, that C. D. under pain of his allegiance to our sovereign lord the king, and fealty to us, be and appear personally before our commissary general and judge for probate of wills &c. in our prerogative court to be held at the city of Annapolis, the second Tuesday of                    next, and nevertheless if in the mean time you can find the said C. D. you attach him, so that you have him before our said judge upon the day aforesaid, to answer unto us, as well of a certain contempt against us by him committed, as to such other matters and things, as shall then and there be laid to his charge, and further to perform and abide such such
