No. XV.

A COMMISSION of REBELLION.

MARYLAND, fc. The Right honourable Henry Harford, Esquire, absolute lord and proprietary of the province of Maryland.

To A. B. Y. and Z. of C. county, greeting
 —Whereas D. E. was by public proclamation, by our sheriff of F. county, in divers places of the same county, by virtue of our writ to the same sheriff directed, on our behalf commanded, that the same D. E. under pain of his allegiance to his most sacred majesty, and fealty to us, should personally appear before our commissary general or judge for probate of wills &c. in our prerogative court, at a certain day already past, yet nevertheless hath manifestly refused to obey our command in that behalf, therefore we command you jointly and severally, that the aforesaid D. E. wheresoever he shall be found within this province of Maryland,
