and taken upon himself the execution thereof; and whereas the said C. D. hath at the request of the said A. B. actually paid to him the said A. B. the whole legacy of

(the receipt of which the faid A. B. doth hereby acknowledge) although there may be cause to apprehend a desciency of assets for payment of debts and other legacies. The condition therefore of this obligation is such, that if such desciency shall actually and bona side happen, the said A. B. his executors or administrators, shall, after request in that behalf to him or them made, refund and pay back unto him the said C. D. his executors or administrators, his or their rateable part or share of such desciency, then this obligation to be void, otherwise of sorce.

No. XXVI.

Release to a GUARDIAN.

Know all men by these presents, that A. B. of fon and heir of deceased, hath remised, released, and for ever acquitted, and by these presents doth remise, release, and for ever quit,