

No. XXXV.

A BEQUEST TO FEME COVERT.

Item,—I give and bequeath unto my daughter A. B. the wife of C. D. one thousand pounds sterling during her life only, and after her decease to her present children then living, to be equally divided between them; under this express proviso nevertheless, that my executors shall not be compelled to pay into the hands of the said C. D. any thing herein bequeathed unto my said daughter A. B. but that the same shall remain and continue in the hands of my said executor, his executors, or such person or persons as he shall appoint, during the life of the said C. D. and that during his life, the profits thereof shall be payed to the said A. B. and that any receipts or writings witnessing the payment of such profits to the said A. B. and signed by her, though covert, shall be sufficient discharges to my aforesaid executor, or person or persons by him appointed, as aforesaid.

No. XXXVI.