

CLAUSE in a WILL for determining DISPUTES, about any GIFT or BEQUEST.

And lastly my exprefs will and meaning is, and I do hereby order and appoint that if any difference, dispute, question or controverfy shall be moved, arise or happen concerning any gift, bequest, or other matter or thing in this my will given and bequeathed, exprest or contained, that then no suit or suits in law or equity, or otherwise, shall be brought, commenced or prosecuted, for and concerning the same, but the same shall be referred wholly to the award, order and determination of my loving friends F. H. and R. D. both of

and what they shall order, direct or determine therein, shall be binding and conclusive to all and every person and persons therein concerned.

The foregoing clauses in wills, inserted here as precedents, are of the most frequent use, and, I trust, sufficient to serve for a guide in most cases: my reason and motive for not prescribing long intails, and elaborate wills, being
