

Vouchers of
the 2d. class,

The second class consists of recognizances.

The proper voucher of a recognizance, is a short copy of such recognizance under seal, signed, and attested by the clerk of the court, where such recognizance was entered, and a receipt thereon from the proper officer appointed to receive the same: If it be a recognizance of bail, then a short copy as aforesaid, and a certificate of the clerk that the bail became liable, with the receipt of the creditor; who should also make a deposition to the effect above directed, with the additional words following, viz.

“ And also that he hath not received any part of the “ debt, or any security or satisfaction for the “ same, (save what is credited) of the principal “ debtor.

Vouchers of
the 3d. class,

The third class takes in all debts due for rent and specialties, that is, bonds, protested bills of exchange, returned within four years after the date of such bill, (accounted a debt of equal nature with any specialty, by act of 1715, ch. 7,) and every kind of writing with a seal to it; as also inland bills of exchange, orders or negotiable notes; which last are by the act 1765, ch. 4, enacted to be deemed a debt of equal nature with foreign protested bills of exchange,