

When the executor refuses the trust, he is to certify such refusal in the following words, or to that effect; either in writing directed to, or verbally and personally before, the commissary, and in no other manner.

I A. B. the appointed executor in the last will and testament of C. D. late of ——— county deceased, do hereby refuse to act as executor to said will, by virtue of such appointment, and do therefore renounce all my right, title, and claim to said executorship accordingly.

The executor's renunciation.

A. B.

And note, that in every case where executors thus enter their renunciation, all executors named in such will (if more there be) must do the same, before letters with a copy of the will annexed can be issued. As also when several executors are appointed, and only one applies for letters testamentary, they cannot issue to him without a previous renunciation, as above, being entered, by every other executor in such will named and appointed.

The renunciation and election of widows, which by law must be entered within forty days from the probate of the will, either verbally with the deputy commissary, or by writing properly attested, must be made in words to the following effect, viz.

Widows election to be entered within forty days.
