SEC. 2. Be it enacted, by the right honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the advice and consent of his lordship's Governor, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the authority of the same, That nothing in the above recited act contained shall be construed to indemnify any officer or other person killing any slave or slaves resisting or refusing to surrender, from undergoing a legal trial, any thing contained in the said act to the contrary notwithstanding, but that it shall and may be lawful for any person, upon his or her trial for killing any slave or slaves, to give this, and the above recited act, in evidence, upon not guilty pleaded; and if it shall appear upon the evidence, that such killing as aforesaid was done in the lawful execution, and in pursuance of the aforesaid act, that then such person or persons, so killing as aforesaid in pursuance and in the lawful execution of the aforesaid act, shall be acquitted and discharged thereof, and from all penalties, forfeitures and punishments for such killing as aforesaid.

Not to prevent a legal trial, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That where any person or persons shall be prosecuted for killing a slave or slaves resisting, as by the said act, entitled, an act for the more effectual punishing of negroes and other slaves, and for taking away the benefit of clergy from certain offenders, and a supplementary act to an act, entitled, an act to prevent the tumultuous meetings and other irregularities of negroes and other slaves, that then and in such case the public of this province shall pay such person or persons all his costs and charges which he or they shall be at by means of any such prosecution.

Public to pay, &c.

CHAPTER 27.

AN ACT to prevent injuring the navigation to Baltimore-town, and to the inspecting house at Elk-Ridge landing, on Patapsco river.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that by opening and digging into the banks of Patapsco river for iron stone, large quantities of earth and sand are thrown and washed into the said river, and navigable branches thereof, by which practice (if continued,) the channel of the said river, and navigable branches aforesaid, will, in a short time, be so filled up, that vessels of any burthen must be prevented from coming into the best and most secure harbours in the said river, and the navigation thereof greatly obstructed; for remedy of which evil, it is prayed that it may be enacted,

Preamble.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, by the right honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the advice and consent of his lordship's Governor, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the authority of the same, That from and after the end of this

No earth, &c. to be thrown into the river, &c.
