

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That upon the admission of any applicant to practise law in any of the courts of record in this state as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the court so admitting him, to certify the same with their own proper signatures, which certificate shall be recorded, and a copy thereof authenticated with the county seal of the county in which the party shall be admitted, shall be available and sufficient to entitle said applicant so admitted, to practise in any of the courts of this state.

Certificate thereof.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if upon the application and examination of any citizen as aforesaid, the court shall be of opinion, that he ought not to be admitted, the said applicant shall not be again entitled to a hearing for admission in any court of this state, until the expiration of twelve months after said first application, and if upon a second application, he shall be rejected, he shall not be again heard until the expiration of twelve months after such second application.

Case of refusal to admit.

Subsequent application.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the application of any lawyer who may have practised, or who may have been licensed to practise in any other state, district or territory of the United States, for admission to practise in the courts of this state, it shall be the duty of the court to whom he shall apply, to admit him upon the same terms and under the same regulations, that a citizen of Maryland would be admitted to the courts of the state, district or territory, in which said applicant may have practised, or may have been licensed to practise; Provided, that in the said state, district or territory, the mode and terms of admission to the bar, be regulated by law.

Applicants from other states to be admitted.

Proviso.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That upon the application of any citizen of any other state or district, in which the mode and terms of admission to the bar are not regulated by law, to practise law in any of the courts of this state, the said courts shall admit him or not, as in their discretion they may think fit, their power in such instances and cases remaining, the same as before the passage of this act.

Applicants under the proviso.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if upon the rejection of any applicant for admission, to practise law in any county court of this state, such applicant shall deem himself aggrieved by such rejection, he shall be permitted to apply to the court of appeals for admission to practise law in said court, who shall examine such applicant as to his qualifications, character and time of studying, in manner and subject to the regulation herein before provided as to such examination; and if upon such examination, the court of appeals shall determine that the applicant ought to be admitted to practise in said court of appeals, he
