

public places in his neighbourhood, a description of the property impounded by him, the time and place of sale; and also in said advertisement to warn the owner to come forward and pay the damages and compensation for feeding the same, and take his property; Provided, that upon tender being made to the party aggrieved by the trespass, of the amount of damages and a reasonable compensation for his feeding the property impounded, it shall be his duty at any time before the sale is made thereof, to deliver the same to the proper owner or his agent.

On tender of damages-

Property to be delivered

CHAPTER 170.

AN ACT to exempt certain persons from serving as Jurors.

Justices of orphans court exempt.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the justices of the orphans courts of the several counties, be and they are hereby exempt from serving as jurors in all cases whatsoever.

Unlawful to summon them.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall not hereafter be lawful for the several sheriffs of this state, or any other person, to summon either of the justices of the orphans court of the several counties of this state, to serve as a juror in any case whatsoever.

CHAPTER 197.

AN ACT granting Appeals from the Court of Chancery, and from the several County Courts, as Courts of Equity.

Case of overruling injunction.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever the chancellor, or the judges, or any one of them, of the county courts as courts of equity, shall overrule any application for an injunction, or hath, or have overruled such application, upon bill or cause now pending, it shall be his or their duty to certify the same at the foot of the bill; and whenever any application, by bill or otherwise, for an injunction, has been or shall be overruled or refused, or whenever any order or decree has been or shall be passed or entered, dissolving such injunction, it shall be lawful for any person or persons conceiving himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved thereby, to present an attested copy of the bill and proceedings with the order refusing such injunction, or a copy of the proceedings on which said dissolution shall be ordered to the judges of the court of appeals, or to any one of them, who shall have authority thereupon to direct the injunction to be awarded or allow an appeal from such order of dissolution, in case he or they shall be of opinion that the chancellor or the said judges, or any of them, of the said county courts as courts of equity, had erred in such order; and when the judges or judge of the court of appeals shall award an injunction in the manner aforesaid, the same proceedings shall be had thereupon as if the injunction had Certify thereon.

Case of dissolving or refusing injury.

Appeal provided.

Proceeding thereon: