

constitution and laws of this state, for the election of delegates to the house of delegates.

The time of holding elections in this state is altered to the first Wednesday in October, by 1837, ch. 118.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the judges of elections now appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, under the corporation of the city of Baltimore, in wards number —, in said city, in making the returns for representatives in congress, under this act, shall designate therein, that the said wards at which they presided as judges, are part of district number —, as laid out by law to choose a member to represent this state in the congress of the United States.

Returns of ward, judges of election.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the mayor of the city of Baltimore, for the time being, shall cause public notice to be given of the elections for representatives in congress under this act, in all the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, in the same manner as provided for in any act or acts to which this act is an additional supplement.

Public notice, city of Baltimore.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if at any time hereafter a special or extra session of congress should be called to commence at such period as to make it necessary, in the opinion of the governor and council, that the representatives in congress from this state should be chosen before the time fixed by law for such election, then it shall be the duty of the governor, by proclamation, published in the newspapers throughout the state, and otherwise, at least thirty days before the time to be appointed for the election by said proclamation, to appoint a day for the election as aforesaid of said representatives in congress; on which day said election shall accordingly be held, to the same effect and in the same manner, and under the same regulations as in case of elections of said representatives on the days fixed by law.

Case of extra session.

Governor by proclamation.

Appoint a day for electing.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the sheriffs of the several counties of this state, respectively, under the penalty of fifty dollars, at least three weeks previous to every election regulated by this act, shall cause public notice to be given within their respective counties, by advertisements set up at the most public places within each election district of the county, of the time and place of holding the election for members of congress under this act, as well as all other elections as directed in the act to which this is a supplement.

Sheriffs of counties. Under penalty.

To give notice of elections.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement, as may be found inconsistent with this act, shall be, and is hereby repealed.

Repeal.