

ments in this province, and limiting the extent of them, passed the third of June, seventeen hundred and fifteen, and the supplements thereto, shall be held to apply to all debts due from, and claims against, and judgments recovered against any corporations, and to all debts due, and claims accruing to any corporations, to the same effect, as if such corporations were natural persons; and where any two successive writs or summonses on suit against a corporate body, shall be returned that such corporate body is not to be found, such case shall be deemed and taken to be within the provisions of the third section of the act, to which this is a supplement; and the act passed at November session, of the year seventeen hundred and ninety-five, chapter fifty-six, being also a supplement to said act, shall be taken to extend to all the corporate bodies, not incorporated by this state, and to all corporate bodies, although incorporated by this state, not having the president and directors, or managers, or a majority of the said president and directors, or managers residing in this state; and all such corporate bodies, shall be within the provisions of said supplement, as if persons not citizens of this state, or not residing therein.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases aforesaid, of debts from, or claims, or judgments against any corporations to, or in favour of, or belonging or accruing to a minor, feme covert, or lunatic, the guardian, husband or committee of said minor, feme covert or lunatic, shall be competent to make the oath or affirmation required by the act to which this is a supplement, or the supplements thereto, and the oaths or affirmations of said guardian, husband or minor, shall have the same force and effect, as if made by a creditor, not under any legal disability.

Case of corporations with minors, feme coverts or lunatics. Oaths of guardians, &c. admitted.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That in all cases of debts or claims aforesaid, due or accruing to any corporations as aforesaid, the president, treasurer, cashier, or other officer of said corporation, for the time being, shall be competent to make the oaths or affirmations required by the act to which this is a supplement, or any of the supplements thereto.

Oath of president or cashier admitted.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That no attachments sued out for any debt due to any minor, feme covert, or lunatic, on the oath or affirmation of the guardian, husband, or committee of such minor, feme covert, or lunatic shall be quashed, or set aside, for any defect, in matter of form.

Attachment, &c. not to be set aside for want of form.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That when by virtue of this act, and the act to which this is a supplement or the supplements thereto, any attachment shall issue against the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, or credits, of any corporate body, the said corporate body, may in cases where a natural person if defendant might by entering special bail to the action dissolve such at-

Case of attachment against corporation, &c.