

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if any corporation, or any of its officers, after service, in manner aforesaid, of any notice of seizure as aforesaid, shall transfer or permit the transfer of shares in the capital or joint stock of such corporation, or of any debt transferable upon the books of such corporation, standing at the time of service in the name of any person or body corporate, whose interest in such capital or joint stock or debt, may have been mentioned in such notice to have been seized or taken, as aforesaid, before the sheriff or coroner or other officer aforesaid, or the court shall have given notice in writing that such notice of seizure is withdrawn, such corporation shall forfeit and pay to the person or persons or body corporate, at whose suit the writ or writs in such notice mentioned, issued, the full market value at the time of transfer, or at any time afterwards, of the stock so transferred, to be recovered by action on the case as for tort.

Any corporation, after service as aforesaid. Allowing transfer of any such stock as attached.

Liable to full value.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if at any stage of the proceeding the writ or writs shall be countermanded or quashed, or if an attachment or attachments abated or dissolved, or the debt or sum of money paid to the sheriff or coroner or other officer, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or coroner or other officer aforesaid, to give notice in writing to all corporations upon whom he may have served such notice of seizure as aforesaid, that he withdraws such notice; and whenever any such notice in writing of the withdrawal of any such seizure, either in whole or in part, is received by any corporation, it shall be lawful for such corporation to permit transfers of stock or debt affected by such notice of withdrawal, as if such notice of seizure had never been given; Provided, that if the notice of withdrawal, shall extend to part only of such stock or debt, it shall not be lawful for any such corporation, under the penalty aforesaid, to permit any transfer which shall not leave standing in the name of the person or persons or body corporate whose interest has been seized or taken or mentioned so to be in any notice of seizure, the full number of shares of stock and amount of transferable debt which the sheriff or coroner, or other officer aforesaid has included in his schedule as aforesaid, of which number of shares and transferable debt it shall be the duty of the said sheriff or coroner or officer to notify every such corporation in the notice of withdrawal.

If such writ be countermanded or debt satisfied.

Sheriff shall give notice of withdrawing said notice.

But if of part only. Sufficient shares to be reserved to satisfy.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if any sheriff or coroner, or other officer, shall refuse or neglect to give such notice of withdrawal in any case, in which, by law it ought to be given, it shall be competent for the court, to which the writ or writs was or were returnable, by virtue of which any notice of seizure may have been given, on motion of any corporation or person whatsoever, after hearing the parties, or on their neglecting to

On sheriff neglecting to give such notice.
