CHAPTER 64.

AN ACT to provide for the Cession of the Territorial Jurisdiction of this State, over certain land on Love Point, in Queen Anne's County, to the United States, for the erection of a Light-House thereon.

WHEREAS, it is believed that the convenience of the citizens of this state, and others navigating the Chesapeake bay, would be greatly promoted and their interests and property better protected, by the erection of a light-house, on Love Point, in Queen Anne's county; and the people immediately interested therein, have determined to apply to the congress of the United States, for the passage of an act for that purpose; therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1, 3, 4, 5, 6. Regulate the mode of proceeding by the commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the United States upon the payment to the proprietor or proprietors of the amount or value, which may be ascertained and assessed by the said commissioners, or by the appellate tribunal herein after provided for (as the case may be) shall thence forward be considered the true and lawful owners of the said land, and of the right and privilege of a way thereto; and thereupon the right of jurisdiction of the state of Maryland, in and over the land aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby relinquished, ceded and made over to the United States for the purpose aforesaid.

Cession.
