

DECEMBER, 1834.—CHAPTER 73.

AN ACT relating to Guardians and Wards.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases where there hath been, or may hereafter be, an appointment of a guardian of a female above the age of eighteen years, by last will and testament, and the person so appointed shall have died, or renounced, or refused to act, it shall be lawful for the orphans court of the county in which the said will shall have been proved, to appoint a guardian in the place of the person so dying, renouncing or refusing to act; and the person so appointed by the orphans court, shall give bond in the same manner as guardians appointed for infants under age, and shall have the same powers, perform the same duties, and be entitled and bound to perform them for the same length of time, or up to such period as the person appointed by the will, if he had lived and taken upon him the trust and duty reposed in him by the will, and shall be bound to render and settle an account of his guardianship or trust, to the orphans court, in the same manner and at the same time as other guardians of minors appointed by the orphans court are now required by law to render and settle their guardians' accounts.

Authority to appoint,
for females
over eighteen years.

CHAPTER 75.

AN ACT authorizing Officers of the Army and Navy of the United States to bring their Servants, being Slaves, into this State.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any officer of the United States army or navy, who shall, by duty, be called into this state, shall be authorized to bring with him, and retain while he so remains, any servant or servants, being slaves, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided, such license be not construed to authorize the sale of any such slave or slaves within the limits of this state, but that they shall, on the removal of such officer, be carried out of the state with him.

Permission given.

CHAPTER 76.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act for the relief of the Securities of the Collectors of Taxes and of Sheriffs, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and eighty-two.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in case of a bill or petition to a county court, in pursuance of the act to which this is a supplement, where on filing the bill or petition, or at any other period in the cause, it shall appear to the court, from any fact or facts in the case, verified by affidavit, to be proper that an injunction should issue in respect of the defendants, or any of them, or any authority, acts, or proceed-
