

Guardian
in case of personal property.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in case any infant in this state shall be entitled to personal property by purchase, or by gift, other than by last will and testament recorded in this state, and there be no guardian appointed to such infant within this state, the orphans court of the county in which such infant shall reside, shall have the right to appoint a guardian to such infant.

Guardian-
ship applies
to all
property.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That when a guardian shall be appointed by an orphans court in this state, or by last will and testament, agreeably to law, such guardianship shall extend to all the property of the infant within this state, or which may be obtained by such guardian out of the state, in virtue of such appointment or guardianship, in order that the affairs of orphans and minors may be as little complicated as possible, and that they may more easily and readily obtain justice.

CHAPTER 293.
