

not to have had notice of the condition of insolvency as aforesaid of said debtor.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases of applications that shall hereafter be made for the benefit of the insolvent laws under the act to which this is a supplement, or any of the supplements thereto, or under the act passed at November session of the year eighteen hundred and five, chapter one hundred and ten, entitled an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, or any of the supplements thereto, all property within the intent of the fifth section of the said act, passed at November session, of the year eighteen hundred and five, chapter one hundred and ten, that shall be acquired by or accrue to the insolvent debtor, by gift, descent, or in his own right by bequest, devise, or in any course of distribution, shall be deemed and so distributed, and applied, as estate of said insolvent debtor for the benefit of his creditors, at the time of his application, and as effectually as any property mentioned in the schedule of such insolvent debtor upon his said application, and shall as from the time of said acquisition or accrual, vest in any trustee or trustees for his or her creditors appointed, or hereafter to be appointed under such application: and any acquittance or receipts from such trustee or trustees in respect of such property, shall avail as if granted by the insolvent debtor; and where such insolvent debtor shall have applied more than once for the benefit of the said insolvent laws, the said property shall be deemed and taken as estate for the benefit of all the creditors of said insolvent debtor, so being at the times of the several applications, and shall be so distributed and applied, and upon such trust shall vest as aforesaid in the trustee or trustees aforesaid, under the first of the applications aforesaid, of such insolvent debtor; Provided, that nothing herein contained, shall in any manner, discharge the property so acquired or accrued, from any execution or attachment levied thereon previously to the passage of this act, but that the said process shall, in all respects, be valid and effectual to the same extent, as if the said insolvent debtor had not made his said application.

In cases of application, &c.

All property acquired, &c.

Shall be deemed as estate of the insolvent.

Vest in trustee.

His acquittance, valid.

And if more than once insolvent.

Applied to payment of all his creditors.

Proviso.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That in any case of attachment or other proceeding at law, or in equity, now or hereafter to be instituted, for the purpose of making liable any property acquired as aforesaid by an insolvent debtor who shall have applied as aforesaid, before the passage of this act, under any plea, of limitations that shall hereafter be pleaded by or on behalf of such insolvent debtor, the lapse of time shall be computed only from the time of such acquisitions; and the creditor or creditors, at whose instance such attachment or other proceeding at law or in equity, shall have been instituted, shall be at liberty to Limitation in such cases regulated.