

shall be made in some newspaper having circulation in said county.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That every year within two months next after the court of appeals for the western shore shall have terminated their session of December term, the clerks of the courts of appeals of both shores respectively shall at the expense of the state, cause to be published in some two of the daily newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore, a perfect copy of all the rules by said courts of appeals established, and then in force.

Court of Appeals.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That in the last week in March in every year, the register of the high court of chancery shall, at the expense of the state, cause to be published in some two of the daily newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore, a perfect copy of all the rules by said court established, and then in force.

Court of Chancery.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That as a compensation for performing the duties by this act required of the several officers herein before referred to, each of said officers shall be entitled to such sum as the court to which he shall belong, shall judge to be commensurate with the service rendered by him, and if any such officer shall fail to discharge at the time, and in the manner prescribed, any of the duties imposed upon him by this act, he shall, for every such default, forfeit and pay for the use of the state, the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered as other fines are recoverable.

Compensation.

Penalty for neglect.

CHAPTER 118.

AN ACT to regulate the time of holding Elections in the several Counties and Cities in this State.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act all elections throughout the several counties and cities of this state, heretofore held on the first Monday in October, shall hereafter be held on the first Wednesday thereof, and be subject to the same rules and regulations as heretofore provided by law.

Election 1st Wednesday in October.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriffs in the several counties throughout the state, to give public notice to the judges of said elections, and to the voters of said counties and cities, that the said elections will be held on the first Wednesday in October, instead of the first Monday thereof, annually as heretofore, and be governed by the same laws as when held on the first Monday.

Sheriffs required to publish.