

Title confirmed to. trust property, jointly with the trustee or trustees who appointed him, or them, in the same manner and possessed of the same power over the trust property, as if he or they had been originally named in the deed creating the trust; Provided nevertheless, that no trustee shall be at liberty by such resignation to exonerate himself from any pecuniary responsibility, so as to throw the whole burden thereof, on the remaining trustee or trustees, without his or their assent.

As to liability. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That whenever any property has been conveyed in trust as aforesaid, and by reason of the causes specified in the deed creating the trust, or by reason of resignations as authorized by this act, or from any other cause, there shall be a minority only of the board of trustees remaining, it shall and may be lawful for the remaining trustee or trustees, or a majority of them, to fill up the board of trustees, conforming as nearly as possible, in so doing, to the provisions of the deed creating the trust; Provided however, if a different mode of filling any vacancy or vacancies in the board of trustees, be prescribed in the deed creating the trust, then the vacancy or vacancies shall be filled in the manner thereby prescribed, and on filling up of said vacancy or vacancies, the new trustee or trustees shall become jointly seized with him or them, of the trust property, according to the enactments of the second section of this law.

In any case only minority of trustees remaining. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That whenever any property may have been, or shall hereafter be conveyed in trust as aforesaid, and by reason of the removal out of the state, or from any other cause whatever, the trustees cannot be assembled for the purpose of filling any vacancy, or vacancies, occurring as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the nomination of a trustee or trustees, to fill the vacancy or vacancies to be made to each of the trustees separately, and for each of the trustees to give his vote in writing specifying the name of the nominee or nominees for whom he votes, and an election made in such manner, shall have the same effect, and be equally as valid as if made according to the provisions of the deed, creating the trust; Provided however, that the mode of filling a vacancy or vacancies in the board of trustees under the provisions of the deed creating such trusts, is by nomination to, and approval by the trustees thereof.

May supply vacancies. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That whenever any property has been conveyed in trust as aforesaid, and by the operations of any cause, or causes whatever, the board of trustees shall have become entirely extinct, it shall and may be lawful for a new board of trustees to be created in such manner as is, or may be prescribed by the discipline and form of church government to which such property belongs, and said board of trustees when so created, shall be seized and possessed of the trust property,

Proviso.
•
In case of absence of trustee.
Vacancy may be filled.
Mode specified.
In case trustees entirely extinct.
May be appointed by the church.