

erected and fitted up in the court-house of said county, a suitable book-case, in which the books, papers and documents belonging to the commissioners, may be safely deposited and kept.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That each of the said commissioners shall be entitled to receive two dollars per day, for every day that he shall necessarily attend to the duties of his office. Commissioners' compensation.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall and may, at any time during each and every year, make, complete, and close their levy, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all suits at law or in equity, which may be pending at the time of the passage of this act, by or against the justices of the levy court of said county, shall be carried on and prosecuted to a final determination in like manner, and have the same legal effect, either in favour of or against the commissioners, provided for by this act, as if the said suit or suits, had been instituted by or against the said commissioners. Authority to levy, &c. suits at law.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That so much of any act or acts of the general assembly, as may be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be, and the same is and are hereby repealed. Repeal.

NOTE.—The 4th sec. of this act transfers to the County Commissioners, the authorities exercised by the Commissioners of the Tax. Their duties are principally to be found in the act of 1812, ch. 191, entitled, 'an Act for the valuation of real and personal property in the several counties of this state.' Allegany and Anne Arundel counties have since then had a re-valuation of property. By 1817, ch. 142, a new assessment of property in Baltimore county was provided for, and that assessment was to be made in the manner prescribed by 1812, ch. 191,—the act of 1812, ch. 191, will be therefore distributed to 'Baltimore County,'—which see.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act to provide for electing Commissioners for Allegany County, and prescribing their powers and duties, passed December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter twenty-five.—1831, ch. 72.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, that the act, entitled, an act to provide for electing commissioners for Allegany county, and prescribing their powers and duties, passed December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter twenty-five, did not make a seal necessary, and it appearing just and proper that the commissioners should have a seal; therefore, Preamble.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners elected under the act, be authorized and hereby directed to cause to be made and use a corporate seal, and may alter the same at their pleasure, as may be necessary to give validity to the acts of the said commissioners. Seal.