

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the justices aforesaid may and shall call upon the collector or collectors for all moneys levied and assessed for the use of the said roads, as soon as the same are payable by law to the said justices, and in case of neglect or refusal in the said collector to settle and pay the same, the said justices shall and they are hereby authorized, directed and required, within two months thereafter, to issue an execution against the said collector or collectors, out of the county court, for the sum of money so due from the said collector or collectors, and shall have all the legal benefits and privileges usually attending executions issued in behalf of the state of Maryland; and the said justices of the levy court shall also liquidate and settle the accounts of all the supervisors within their county annually at their levy courts; and the said justices shall keep a fair record of all their proceedings relative to the public roads.

Justices to call on collectors, &c.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall alter or change, or in any manner obstruct or encroach upon, any of the said roads, or on any part or parts thereof, or cut down, destroy or injure, any of the bridges, causeways, boundaries, marks or directions, therein or thereon, such person or persons, being thereof convicted in the county court, shall be fined at the discretion of the court for each and every such offence, in any sum not exceeding fifty pounds, according to the nature and degree of the offence; and all fines imposed in such cases shall be appropriated to the purpose of repairing such damages, and improving the roads in the county where the offence is committed, and shall be paid to, and accounted for, by the supervisor of the district wherein such damages shall be sustained.

Penalty for altering &c. any roads, &c.

SEC. 15. WHEREAS the money to be raised under this act will not be sufficient to keep the public roads in Allegany county in good repair; therefore, Be it enacted, That the supervisor of the public roads in said county, be, and he is hereby authorized and directed, to summon or warn every free able bodied male person, and also the master or mistress of any male servant, above the age of sixteen years, in his district, to assist in repairing the public roads in said district, and every person who shall refuse or neglect, shall forfeit the sum of ten shillings current money; and every master or mistress as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to send all his or her male servants of the age aforesaid, shall forfeit for each person the sum of ten shillings current money; Provided nevertheless, that it shall and may be lawful for every person who shall be summoned or warned under this act, and for every master or mistress of servants as aforesaid, in lieu of working on the public roads as aforesaid, to pay to the supervisor of the said district, the sum of three shil-

Supervisors to summon persons, &c.