

lings and nine-pence current money, for each and every day any person shall be summoned or warned to work as aforesaid.

Modified by 1807, ch. 58; 1808, ch. 6; 1816, ch. 85.

Penalty for neglect, &c.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the supervisor of the public roads in said county, who shall refuse or neglect to summon every free able bodied male person, or the master or mistress of any male servants as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to recover the fine or fines by this act imposed on any person for not assisting in repairing the public roads, such supervisor shall, for every person whom he shall not summon or warn as aforesaid, and for every person from whom he shall neglect to recover the fine or fines as aforesaid, forfeit and pay the sum of ten shillings current money for every such offence; Provided, that nothing in this act contained, shall authorize any supervisor to summon or warn any person above four days in each and every year, and any person summoned or warned for more than the said four days, such person shall not be obliged to attend more than the said four days.

Persons may pay annually, &c.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall, on or before the first day of September annually, pay to the supervisor of the public roads of the district in which such person or persons shall reside, the sum of fifteen shillings current money, for each and every person liable to assist in the repairing the public roads in said county, such person or persons shall not, for one year from the day on which such payment or payments is or are made, be liable to the penalties of this act, and the supervisor shall not be obliged to summon such person or persons, any thing in this act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Supervisor to lay out moneys, &c.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That the supervisor shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to lay out the moneys, or any part thereof which by this act he may receive from any person or persons, in the same manner he is authorized to dispose of the money levied for repairing the public roads by this act.

And render an account, &c.

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That the supervisors of the public roads in said county, be, and they are hereby directed to lay before the levy court of said county, on their annual meeting, an account on oath of the receipt and expenditure of the money received and expended by this act.

How fines, &c. are to be recovered, &c.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures by this act imposed, under the sum of ten pounds current money, shall be recovered in the same manner as small debts are recoverable out of court; and every justice of the peace in the said county, before whom any of the fines by this act imposed shall be recovered, shall, and he is hereby directed to lay a particular