

account of the same before the justices of the next succeeding levy court.

SEC. 21. Suspends the operation of this act as to Allegany county, to 1796.

SEC. 22. This act to commence on the first Monday of March next, and continue in force three years, and until the end of the next session of assembly which shall happen thereafter; and from and after the first Monday of August next, the act, entitled, an act for marking of highways, and making the heads of rivers, creeks, branches and swamps, passable, passed at September session, seventeen hundred and four,* and the several supplements thereto, and also an act, entitled, an act for repairing public roads in this province,† shall cease and be void, so far as they relate to the counties within this act mentioned; and the act to empower the justices of Cecil county to straighten and amend the public roads in said county, and to levy the expenses attending the same on the assessable property of said county, passed November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-one,‡ except so far as relates to the roads already laid out by the commissioners of said county, shall cease to be in force, and are hereby repealed; Provided always, that no new road already laid out by the justices of the levy court of Cecil county, shall be opened through any buildings, enclosed yard, garden or orchard, against the consent of the owner or owners thereof.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall extend to alter, or in any manner be construed to alter, change or repeal, an act,* entitled, an act for laying out sundry turnpike roads in Baltimore county, and the supplementary acts thereto, and so much of an act,† entitled, an act to straighten and amend the several public roads in several counties, as relates to Baltimore county, or any part thereof, or to destroy, divert or withdraw, the funds, or any part thereof, appropriated by law to the purposes in the said acts mentioned and expressed, or in any manner to alter the roads therein mentioned to be straightened or laid out.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That all moneys arising on the assessable property in the town of Frederick, and its addition, in Frederick county, in virtue of this act, shall be disposed of as follow: One-third thereof to the public roads of the county, the other two-thirds to be applied to the repairs of the streets and alleys of said town, agreeably to an act,* entitled, an act to repair and amend the streets and alleys in Fredericktown, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That an act, entitled, an act to repair the public roads in Queen Anne's county, passed November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-three,* shall be, and hereby is repealed.

Commencement, &c.

* Ch. 21.

† 1753, ch. 16.

‡ Ch. 66.

Not to alter former laws, &c.

* 1787, ch. 23.

† 1790, ch. 32.

How certain moneys are to be disposed of.

* 1786, ch. 36.

An act repealed.

* Ch. 65.