

To be collected by the constable. as the trustees, or a majority of them, may deem most advisable to make engagement; which tax to be levied upon the taxable property of said school district, predicated upon the date of the next approaching county assessment, to be collected in the usual way of collecting the county tax, by the agency of a constable in said school district, who shall be known as collector of school tax, and shall receive as compensation for said service, a commission equal to that received by the county collector, for collecting the county tax.

His compensation.

Levy list.

Collection and payment over.

Employment of teacher.

Compensation limited $300.

Except in Cumberland.

Meetings of trustees.

Four meetings annually.

Special meetings.

Secretary; his duties.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the trustees of school, or a majority of them, to furnish to the collector of school tax, a list of the names of persons so taxed, together with the sums due by each, annexed to their respective names, and it shall be the duty of the said collector of school tax, to collect and pay over monthly, to the treasurer of said school district, all moneys so collected, and shall complete his collection and returns, within the space of three months from the time of receiving said list.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That any two of the trustees of school, or a majority of them, shall be competent to engage and employ a teacher, for a term not less than six months, nor more than one year; Provided, the said applicant as teacher, shall first have undergone an examination by, and received the written approval of a majority of the trustees of school; And provided also, that the pro rata allowance of three hundred dollars per annum, be the extent of salary given, except in the town of Cumberland, in which place the amount of salary is hereby left unlimited.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That a majority of the trustees of school, shall have power to call a meeting of the board, by giving notice thereof to each member of the board, at least one day prior to such meeting, whenever the public good would seem to require it.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said board of trustees of school, shall hold four regular meetings in each year, at the school-house in their district, in the months of January, April, July and October.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to debar the trustees of school, from holding special meetings of their body at pleasure, for the purpose of regulating all matters of order in the school, and all matters of concern between the teacher and the school.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the trustees aforesaid, shall elect one of their number secretary, whose duty it shall be to attend all meetings of the trustees, and shall record all proceedings had at all meetings thereof, and shall keep an account, and make a statement to the county commissioners, at the end of his term of service, of the affairs of the school, including a