

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all taxes which are now or may hereafter be required or authorized by law to be raised on the assessable property of the city of Baltimore, shall be levied and collected upon the assessment so to be made; Provided nevertheless, that the mayor and city council of Baltimore, shall not in any one year impose and levy a greater assessment than two hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of defraying the corporation expenses, exclusive of all others.

Levy thereon.

Limitation $200,000.

See notes to sec. 4, of 1817, ch. 148, ante page 1409.

AN additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act relating to the City of Baltimore, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen.—1833, ch. 182.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That where real estate within the city of Baltimore has been or may be hereafter divided, according to law, among heirs, legatees, joint tenants or tenants in common, entitled to the same, and such division calls for any of the streets, lanes or alleys, or any part or parts thereof, as surveyed and laid off under the act of assembly, to which this is a supplement, or reserve any of the said streets, lanes or alleys, or any part or parts thereof as open, and divides such estate with reference thereto, that the mayor and city council of Baltimore, be, and they are hereby authorized, on the application of one or more persons interested in the ground to be taken on such application, to adopt and sanction by ordinance the principle upon which such division was had, and to open any of the said streets, lanes or alleys, or any part or parts thereof, in the said division reserved and recognized; Provided, that the ground over which the said street, lane or alley, or part thereof passes, be at the time of such application in fact unenclosed and unimproved; Provided, that at least one week's notice in the newspapers of said city, (the costs of the advertisements to be paid by the applicants,) be given of such application before any such ordinance shall pass.

In division of real estate.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all or any of the streets, lanes or alleys, or any part or parts thereof, opened in the manner herein before directed, be and are hereby declared to be public highways, and to be subject to the laws, regulations and ordinances applicable to public streets, lanes or alleys, or part or parts thereof, in the city of Baltimore.

Declared public highways.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act relating to the city of Baltimore, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter one hundred and forty-eight.—1834, ch. 277.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases of applications to the mayor and city council of Baltimore, by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement, for opening, extending, widening, or straightening, any

Three commissioners; powers.