

to designate
place for sale of horses and carriages.

designate the place or places for the sale of horses and carriages, as to him shall seem proper and expedient, and that he shall also have authority, and he is hereby authorized to make such regulations in respect to the time and manner of selling horses and carriages at auction, and to direct the manner of riding and driving such horses and carriages, as he shall deem best calculated to promote the public convenience, and protect the persons of individuals from danger.

And regulate such sales.

Register of horses sold.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That every auctioneer appointed and licensed under this act, for the sale of horses at auction, shall keep a registry of all horses that shall or may be sold by him as such auctioneer, specifying the description of every horse so sold, the sum of money for which he shall have been sold, and also the name and residence of the seller and purchaser, which registry shall at the end of each and every year, be by him deposited for safe keeping with the clerk of Baltimore city court, with the oath or affirmation thereto annexed of such auctioneer or auctioneers of the truth thereof.

Limit $7\frac{1}{4}$
per cent.
commission
for selling
books, &c.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That no auctioneer specially licensed for selling books, maps or prints, under this act, shall be entitled to demand or receive, without a previous agreement to the contrary, from any person directly or indirectly, for his services, a commission not exceeding seven dollars and fifty cents for every one hundred dollars of the purchase money arising from such sales, exclusive of all duties; and that no auctioneer specially licensed as aforesaid, for selling furniture and wearing apparel, lands, lots of ground and tenements, servants and slaves, carriages and horses, books, stationery, maps and prints, shall be entitled to demand or receive, unless there shall be a previous agreement to the contrary, from any person directly or indirectly, for his services, a commission exceeding four dollars, clear of all duties, for every hundred dollars of the purchase money arising from such sale, and that no auctioneer licensed generally for the selling of any goods, wares and merchandise, shall be entitled to demand or receive, unless there be a previous agreement to the contrary, from any person or persons, directly or indirectly, a commission exceeding two dollars, clear of all duties, for every hundred dollars arising from sales made by him, except upon sales of furniture and wearing apparel, upon which they shall be entitled to receive four dollars, clear of all duties, for every hundred dollars arising from such sales; and except also upon sales of books, stationery, maps and prints, upon which they shall be entitled to receive seven dollars and fifty cents, clear of duties, for every hundred dollars arising from such sales; and every auctioneer who shall receive or accept any greater or higher reward for his services than is authorized

2 per cent.
for general
articles.
Except.