FLOUR.

AN ACT relating to the Inspection of Flour, and other Articles in the Precincts of the City of Baltimore.—1803, ch. 83.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, that many persons residing in the precincts of the city of Baltimore labour under great disadvantages by reason of the inspectors of said city not being authorized to inspect flour and other articles within the said precincts; for remedy whereof,

Laws heretofore passed on the subject to extend to the precincts of city.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the laws heretofore passed, or hereafter to be passed, respecting the inspection of flour, provisions, butter and liquors, and the ordinances of the corporation of the city of Baltimore, so far as the same relate to the inspection of flour, provisions, butter and liquors, shall extend, and are hereby extended, to the precincts of said city, in as full and ample a manner as if the precincts of the city of Baltimore had been mentioned therein, and the different inspectors, authorized for that purpose by the mayor and city council, shall have the same power to inspect any flour, provisions, butter or liquors, in the precincts of the city of Baltimore, that they now have in said city, and shall, when called upon, inspect flour, provisions, butter or liquors, in the precincts, in the same manner, and under the same restrictions and penalties, that are imposed in case of failing to inspect the like articles in the city of Baltimore; and the different inspectors shall be entitled to the same fees for inspections in the precincts as they are authorized to receive for inspections under the laws of this state, or under the ordinances of the corporation of the city of Baltimore, in said city, and all
