

inspectors and measurers of lumber for the city and county of Baltimore, who shall be appointed in the same manner, and be under the same regulations in all respects, that the eight are who are appointed by the authority of the act to which this is an additional supplement, or may be under this law, any thing contained in the act to which this is a supplement, to the contrary notwithstanding.

---

AN additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act to regulate the Inspection of Lumber.—1822, ch. 35.

Preamble. WHEREAS, it hath been found by experience that the designating of one of the wood-corders of the city of Baltimore, for the first and tenth wards of the said city, in pursuance of the sixth section of the act, entitled, 'a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to regulate the inspection of lumber,' passed at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, to be productive of great inconvenience, the said first and tenth wards being at a great distance apart from each other; therefore,

Repeal. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all such parts of the sixth section of the act, entitled, 'a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to regulate the inspection of lumber,' as enacts that one of the additional wood corders authorized by the said act, shall be 'designated as wood-corder for the first and tenth wards of the city of Baltimore, who shall be authorized to act as wood-corder in such wards only,' be, and the same is hereby repealed.

---

AN additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act to regulate the Inspection of Lumber.—1829, ch. 138.

Marks prescribed. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all oak and poplar boards, or planks of every kind, shall be marked and designated by the inspector, according to the quality thereof, as follows, to wit: all such as is of prime quality, according to the existing laws, shall be marked as such; all other such boards or plank, which are merchantable, shall be marked as second quality; and such as are not merchantable, shall be marked as cullings, or third quality.

---

AN additional SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act to regulate the Inspection of Lumber in the City of Baltimore.—1831, ch 119.

Inspectors to make returns. SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the inspectors of lumber, now appointed, or who may be hereafter appointed for the city of Baltimore, to make regular quarterly returns in the months of January, April, July and October, of the quantity and kinds of lumber and shingles by them inspected in each year, said