

for the purpose of sale, shall be subject to the like regulations with regard to inspection and cording, which are now in force with regard to wood landed at the wharves in the city of Baltimore.

subject to all regulations.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That in any appeal or appeals from the decision of any wood-corder or wood-corders, the mayor of the city of Baltimore be, and he is hereby authorized to direct such appeal or appeals to be tried by any three disinterested persons in the same manner that such appeals are now tried by three wood-corders.

Trial of appeals.

The appeal modified by 1832, ch. 300.

A further SUPPLEMENT to the Act, entitled, an Act authorizing the appointing of Inspectors and Wood-Corders, and to regulate the Cording of Fire-Wood, brought by water to the City of Baltimore.—1832, ch. 300.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever any one shall consider himself, or herself aggrieved by the measurement of any inspector, or wood-corder, and shall apply to the mayor of the city of Baltimore, to select three persons, to try an appeal as provided for by an act, passed December session, eighteen.hundred twenty-nine, chapter eighty-five, section five, that the persons so appointed, shall not be venders of wood or purchasers (except for their family use) and previous to their acting on said appeal, shall make the following oath or affirmation (as the case may be) before some person authorized to administer the same. 'I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully and impartially try the matter depending on this appeal and determine the same according to my best judgment, without fear, favour or affection, so help me God,' and the inspector or wood-corder from whose decision the appeal is made, shall be held responsible to the party making the appeal, to pay to the said party the sum of twenty cents, for each and every cord, that the said persons who try the appeal, shall determine to be a deficiency or excess as the case may be, the same to be recovered by warrant in the name of the party aggrieved before any justice of the peace, in the same manner as other small debts are recovered; and it shall be the duty of the persons trying the appeal to make a return to the said mayor of their decision, and they shall be entitled to receive fifty cents each, for their services; the same to be paid by the party against whom said appeal is decided: Provided nevertheless, if said deficiency or increase shall in the opinion of the parties trying the appeal, appear to have proceeded from error of judgment, in the inspector or wood-corder, then upon the parties trying the appeal, or a majority of them certifying the same under their hands to the mayor; the party aggrieved shall have no

Case of persons aggrieved in measurement.

Persons appointed on appeal not be venders of wood. Oath required.

Corder responsible.

Penalty.

Return of board of appeal.

If certifying error in judgment.