

Appeals
granted.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That in all cases of judgments under this act, either party may have a right to appeal from any such judgment to Baltimore county court, as from other judgments, and to supersede the same, and shall be entitled to all the privileges, to which by law, either party is entitled, in all other cases over which justices of the peace in said city have jurisdiction.

Fees.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That each justice in and for the said city, shall be entitled to receive for each oath or affirmation he shall administer, six and one-quarter cents; for every probat, six and one-quarter cents; for writing each probat to account, six and one-quarter cents; for taking replevin bond, twenty-five cents; for rendering judgment, twenty-five cents; in all claims above fifty dollars, for issuing execution in such claims, twenty-five cents; for issuing a writ of scire facias in such claims, twenty-five cents; for certificate of supersedeas, twelve and a half cents; search of docket or transcript of the same, twelve and a half cents.

Repeal.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That any clause, matter or thing in the original act, of which this is a supplement, or in any other act contrary to the provisions of this act, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

AN ACT to authorize the appointment of Justices of the Peace in the City of Baltimore, with limited Jurisdiction.—1825, ch. 189.

Appointment and powers.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council, may appoint and commission four persons residing in the city of Baltimore, to be styled in their commission, 'justices of the peace for Baltimore county, residing in the city of Baltimore,' and the persons so appointed, when qualified as required by law, may exercise all the powers, authority and jurisdiction, and shall perform all the duties of justices of the peace, as well in the city of Baltimore as in every other part of Baltimore county, except as to issuing process for the recovery of small debts, and the trial of civil actions, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Modified by 1834, ch. 289.

1827, ch. 183, sec. 3, ante page 1415, makes it the duty of the Justices of the Peace, to make a return to the register of the city, of all informations for the violation of city ordinances.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT relating to Justices of the Peace in the City of Baltimore.—1834, ch. 270.

Fees for issuing fieri facias.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, instead of the fees for such services now allowed justices of the peace in and for the city of Baltimore, they shall be entitled to receive for issu-