

tion ; and if any non-commissioned officer, private or musician, shall, at the time of parading the company as directed by this act, or in the by-laws of the company to which he belongs, appear drunk or disobey orders, or use any reproachful, insulting or abusive language to his officers, or any of them, or shall quarrel himself, or promote any quarrel among his fellow-soldiers, or interrupt them in the discharge of their duty, he may be disarmed and put under guard by order of the commanding officer, until the company is dismissed, and shall be fined a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require ; and if on field days or when the division or a regiment is paraded, any non-commissioned officer, private or musician, shall use any reproachful or insulting language to the commanding officer or any other officer on duty, or oppose his or their orders, or promote any opposition to such orders among his fellow-soldiers, he shall be disarmed and put under guard during such parade by such officer, and he shall be tried by a court martial chosen by the commanding officer, consisting of three commissioned officers attached to the regiment to which such offender belongs, and fined a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of said court.

By standers
offending.

SEC. 50. And be it enacted, That if any by-stander shall interrupt, molest or insult any officer or soldier when on duty, at any time as required by this act, or by the by-laws of any company, the commanding officer at the time of such offence may cause the offender to be confined for the day, and he shall also be fined a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of the court martial to be appointed by such officer, to consist of three members, one of whom at least shall be a commissioned officer, which court shall proceed on such trial in the like manner as other courts martial under this act ; and if the like misconduct shall take place before any court martial or other court established under the provisions of this act, towards any officer or soldier or other person required to attend such court, or towards such court or any member thereof, the said court may cause such offender to be confined for the day and may fine him not exceeding fifty dollars ; and the returns thereof for collection shall be made as the returns of other fines imposed by such courts.

Officer removing ;
neglecting
to perform
duty.

SEC. 51. And be it enacted, That any cavalry or field officer or brigadier-general or major-general removing out of the county, or any other officer out of the limits of the city of Baltimore, with an intention of making a permanent change of his residence, shall on such removal be deemed to have resigned his commission, and it shall be the duty of the officer next highest in grade, to make such vacancy known to the governor and council as soon thereafter as conveniently may be ; and if any