

shall be division parades, and shall take place at eight o'clock, A. M.; and the commanding officer of the first light division shall have power to postpone any of the four parades directed for said division; the commanding officer of the third division shall have power to postpone the parade of that division for the twelfth of September; and the commanding officer of brigades in the third division, shall have power to postpone the parades of May, June and October, agreeably to the thirteenth section of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty-eight.

Division
parades.

Power to postpone.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the commanding officer of each of said divisions, shall, on or before the first day of April next, and in the month of February in each and every year thereafter, by general orders to be published in at least three newspapers, appoint the place of meeting for each of the parades, directed by this act for their respective divisions.

Officers to appoint
place of meeting.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That every enrolment of a company district, or return thereof, and every notification of enrolment, and of the times and places of parades, and of the times and places of holding the courts of appeal made before the first day of May next, shall for the year eighteen hundred and thirty-six, be as valid as if made within the times prescribed by the eleventh and fourteenth sections of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty-eight.

Enrolment
made valid.
Notification made
valid.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the fines of all commissioned officers for non-attendance at parades, shall be the same as provided for by the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty-eight; and the fines for non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, for non-attendance at parades, shall hereafter be not less than one dollar, nor more than three dollars, any thing in the act of assembly to the contrary notwithstanding.

Fines of commissioned
officers.

Of noncommissioned.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That all executions which shall be issued by any justice of the peace or alderman, for the recovery of the fines, under the seventy-ninth section of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty-eight, shall be issued in the name of the state, for the use of the first light division, or the third division, as the case may be; and before any such execution is issued, the said justice or alderman shall issue a summons against the party fined, commanding him to appear before him the said justice of the peace or alderman, and the said party if appearing and claiming it, shall have the benefit of appeal to the county court, or of supersedeas on the judgment against him, as in cases of small debts, but if the said party appears and does not appeal or supersede, or if he fails to appear, and is returned summoned, then an execution shall be issued by the said justice or alderman, agreeably to the said seventy-ninth section of the act of Executions.

Justice to issue sump-
mons.

Appeal.