

eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty-eight.

Collect
fines.

SEC. 13. *And be it enacted, That the commanding officer of each of said divisions, shall on or before the first day of June next, and from time to time thereafter, as may be necessary, appoint some suitable person to collect all fines imposed on the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians or privates of said division, under the provisions of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty-eight, or of the supplements thereto, or under the provisions of this act, which said collector before entering upon the duties of his office, shall be required to give bond with security, to the state of Maryland, in such sum as the commanding officer of the division shall require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of collector of fines of said division, and it shall be the duty of all officers of the division to whom returns are made by any courts, within ten days after receiving lists of fines from courts of appeal or from courts martial, to place a copy of said lists of fines in the hands of the said division collector, to be by him collected as herein after provided, and to take his receipt for said list or a duplicate of the same, and the said collector shall account for the moneys collected by him, and pay over the same, when thereunto required, to the division paymaster, subject to such deductions for commissions, and under such other regulations as may have been established by the commanding officer of the division; and if any officer shall neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this section, as required of him, he shall be fined a sum of money not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

Collector to give bond.

List to be given collector.

To account.

Commissions.

Fine for neglect.

Division
paymaster.

Fines to be paid over.

Bond.

SEC. 14. *And be it enacted, That upon the recommendation of the major-generals respectively, there shall be commissioned in each of the aforesaid divisions, a division paymaster with the rank of major, and that all fines collected in either of the said divisions, shall be paid over by the collector to the division paymaster, who before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall be required to give bond with security to the state of Maryland, in such sum as the commanding officer of the division shall require for the faithful performance of his duties as paymaster, that is to say, for the safe keeping of all moneys paid into his hands by the collector, and for the keeping and returning a true and just account of the same to the commanding officer of the division, when thereunto required, also for the paying over the whole or such parts of said moneys as may be drawn for by him for repairs of arms, expenses of music and other incidental expenses, also for the paying over any surplus or balance in his hands, when thereunto required by the com-