

parade, twelfth of September, eight o'clock, A. M.; division review, nineteenth of October, nine o'clock, A. M.; and if either of said two last parades happens on Sunday, it shall take place at the same hour on the following day.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That at the May, June and September parades, the commanding officer of the division, as soon as the parade is formed at the place appointed in division orders, shall forthwith hand over to the commanding officer of brigades, the command of their respective brigades, and the commanding officers of brigades at the May and September parades, shall forthwith hand over to the commanding officers of regiments, the command of their respective regiments, and said commanding officers of regiments at the September parade shall forthwith hand over to the commanding officers of companies, the command of their respective companies.

Commands prescribed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all certificates of membership issued to members of volunteer companies in said division, shall be limited to expire on the first day of March next, following the date of said certificates.

Certificate as volunteer

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That every such certificate of membership, shall in addition to its other privileges exempt the holder thereof from jury duty, for the time limited in said certificate.

Exempt from jury duty.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the commanding officer of each volunteer company as aforesaid, shall, between the first and tenth days of March, in each and every year, furnish the sheriff of Baltimore county, with a full and correct list of the members of said company, to whom certificates of membership have been issued for the current year, and no person named in said list shall be required to perform jury duty, and any commanding officer of a company failing so to do, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court martial as the case may require.

List of, to sheriff.

Penalty.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That in case the commanding officer of a company, shall fail to furnish the list as above required, or shall omit the name of any member to whom a certificate was granted, and in every case where a member shall join a company and obtain his certificate after the list has been furnished as above required, such member if summoned on a jury shall be discharged on producing his certificate to the sheriff or coroner, as the case may be.

Discharge if summoned.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all certificates of membership issued to uniformed, and active members of a volunteer company as aforesaid, shall specify that said member is a uniformed and active member, but every such company may nevertheless receive honorary members, who on payment of not less than five dollars in advance for the use of the company,

Active membership

Honorary membership