

and tenth days of March in each and every year, in regimental orders, to be published in at least three daily newspapers, give notice of the time and place of parade as appointed by law, and designated in division orders, and also of the place at which the court of appeal for his regiment shall meet, on the second Monday after each parade, at three o'clock, P. M.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the commanding officer of each regimental in the first light division, shall, within five days after receiving the proceedings of a regimental court of appeal, where any fines are imposed, place, or cause to be placed in the hands of each commanding officer of a company in his regiment, a list of the fines imposed on the members of that company, certified by said commanding officer of regiment to be a correct list, and said commanding officer of a company as aforesaid, shall, within five days after receiving said list of fines, appoint and employ some suitable person to collect said fines, in the manner now prescribed by law, and said fines when collected, shall after deducting the expenses of collection, be paid over to the commanding officer of the company, for the use thereof; and all fines imposed by company courts martial in said first light division, shall in like manner be collected and paid over for the use of the company; Provided nevertheless, that all fines imposed by brigade courts of appeal, or by division, brigade or regimental courts martial, shall continue to be collected and paid over, as now directed by law.

List of fines.

Collection thereof.

Proviso.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the summons required by the twelfth section of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and ninety-five, shall warn the party summoned that he is liable to an execution against him for militia fines, at the suit of the state of Maryland, for the use of the first light division or the third division, as the case may be, and the justice of the peace shall receive for issuing, and the constable for serving the said summons, the same fees respectively, they now are or may from time to time, be entitled to for issuing or serving a summons for a witness.

Summons.

Fee therefor.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That any order required to be published, or any duties required to be performed in either of the aforesaid divisions, earlier than the first day of May, shall if published or performed on or before that day, be as effectual during the present year as if the same had been published or performed within the time prescribed by law, for such publication or performance of duty, as the case may be; Provided nevertheless, that no officer who may be found delinquent in the performance of his duty shall be allowed to plead this act in justification of his delinquency.

This year; orders, &c. valid.

Proviso.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That any commissioned officer in either of said divisions, failing to perform any duty prescribed

Division officers failing in duty.