

any person or persons who shall not at any one time use or employ a wagon or wagons, wain or wains, cart or carts, within the limits of the city of Baltimore, more than two months in any one year. certain persons.

---

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

AN ACT concerning Public Worship.—1816, ch. 152.

Repealed by 1823, ch. 92.

---

AN ACT to repeal an Act, entitled, an Act concerning Public Worship, passed at December session, 1816, chapter 152.—1823, ch. 92.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Repeal the act concerning public worship, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and sixteen, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

---

SCHOOLS, FREE.

The fund was created by 1816, ch. 256, ante page 654.

By 1827, ch. 183, ante page 1415, the Treasurer of the western shore was instructed to pay over to the mayor and city council that portion of the school fund to which the city was entitled.

---

AN ACT to authorize the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to establish Public Schools in said City.—1825, ch. 130.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Power granted to establish. That the mayor and city council of Baltimore, shall have power to establish public schools within the city of Baltimore.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, To levy tax for support. That for the support of the public schools which may be established by virtue of this act, the said mayor and city council of Baltimore shall have power to lay and collect, in addition to the taxes they are now authorized to lay and collect, such further and other taxes, rates or assessments, as may be necessary for the support of such public schools; Provided, Provisor. that a due regard be had to the actual wealth of the persons who are to pay the same; And provided also, that all profits of industry, salary, hire, rents, annuities, the revenue of property held in trust for minors and others, so far as the same may not now be taxable by law, may be exempted from taxation except for the support of said public schools.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, Conditional clause. That nothing in this act contained shall have any effect and operation in law unless the same shall be approved of and adopted by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, at the first session of the city council, which shall take place after the thirty-first day of December next.