

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to be elected or appointed by the provisions of this or the act to which this is a supplement, shall have, hold and exercise all the powers, rights, privileges and immunities that the commissioners of said county now do in conformity to the provisions of the said original act and the several supplements thereto, and they shall take and subscribe the same oath or affirmation before they enter upon the duties of their office, as is now required by the provision of the act to which this is a supplement.

Powers and duties of commissioner.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the act, entitled, an act to provide for electing the commissioners for Baltimore county and prescribing their duties, passed December session, eighteen hundred twenty-six, chapter two hundred and seventeen, and the several supplements and amendments thereto, as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause.

AN ACT relating to certain Claims on Baltimore County.—1835, ch. 102.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all claims upon Baltimore county, for which levies have been heretofore made, and for which payments respectively, shall not be demanded from the treasurer of the county within one year after the passage of this act, shall be declared to be forfeited to the use of the county, and the moneys levied as aforesaid, shall be thenceforth applicable to the payment of the current expenses of the said county.

All existing claims not demanded within one year shall be forfeited.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all claims upon Baltimore county, for which levies shall hereafter be made by authority of the commissioners of the county, and for which payment respectively shall not be demanded from the treasurer of the county, within three years after the levy list shall be completed, which provided for such claims, shall be deemed to be forfeited to the use of said county, and the moneys so levied shall be thereafter applicable to the payment of the current expenses of the said county; Provided however, that the commissioners of Baltimore county may, in their discretion, levy anew for any claim upon the county, barred as aforesaid, by the provisions of this act, except that no interest shall be allowed upon any such claim.

All claims hereafter not demanded within three years, shall be forfeited.

Proviso.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT to provide for electing Commissioners for Baltimore County, and prescribing their duties.—1836, ch. 247.

WHEREAS, by an act of the general assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter twenty-eight, Baltimore county was divided into three separate election districts, for the purpose of electing two commissioners
