

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases as before mentioned, each party shall have the right of appeal to Baltimore county court. Right of appeal.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall, at their discretion, have power to increase the compensation allowed to labourers employed by supervisors to work on any of the public roads in said county, to any amount not exceeding seventy-five cents per day; Provided, that no such increase shall be allowed to any slave or slaves employed as aforesaid; And provided, the said compensation be equal and uniform amongst all the supervisors of said county, any law, custom or usage to the contrary notwithstanding. Power to increase wages on roads to 75 cents.

A further SUPPLEMENT to an ACT to provide for electing Commissioners for Baltimore County, and prescribing their Powers and Duties, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-six, chapter two hundred and seventeen.—1837, ch. 336.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the grand inquest for all that part of Baltimore county, not included within the limits of the city of Baltimore, may, annually, at their November term for Baltimore county court, select and appoint five members from their own body, to examine into the accounts of the treasurer of said county, and publish a minute statement of all transactions connected with this department of the board of commissioners; stating the amount of moneys received, from what source, and for what purpose paid, in three of the public newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore, and not less than two insertions to be given in each paper. Annual inquest ordered.
And publication.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of said county shall publish, annually, a correct statement of the aggregate amount of levy made, giving a list of each and every particular appropriation and purpose for which said levy was made, and cause a copy of the same to be put up in every election district in said county, at the several houses at which the annual elections are held, and at least ten days prior to such elections. Annual publication of levy.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the treasurer of said county shall prepare and publish, on or before the first day of September, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, a correct statement of the amount of moneys paid over to the treasurer of said county, by the treasurer of the levy court, at the time of the dissolution of the levy court, with all the liabilities existing at that time; and that the treasurer of said county also publish, at the same time, the amount of receipts and disbursements annually, since the organization of the board of commissioners, with the amount of available funds on hand at the times designated above. Of levy court transfers, &c.
