

COUNTY COURT.

AN Act relating to the Trial of Causes in Baltimore County Court.
1816, ch. 139.

Merged in 1824, ch. 65, sec. 1; and see 1828, ch. 161, sec. 5.

A SUPPLEMENT to an Act, entitled, an Act relating to the Trial of Causes in Baltimore County Court.—1824, ch. 65.

Merged in the laws classed under this subdivision, or in the act of 1827, ch. 167, (see title, County Commissioners,) save so much of the 5th sec. which requires the clerk to keep a separate docket.

Separate
dockets,
accounts
and levies.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of Baltimore county court, to keep a separate docket for all business, originating in the county aforesaid, without the limits of the city aforesaid, from that of the city; and that all expenses incurred in the prosecution of causes, suits or appeals, and summoning jurors in Baltimore county court, while sitting, for the sole transaction of the business arising within the city aforesaid, shall be ascertained by the clerk of said court; and the amount thereof certified by said clerk, separate and distinct from that of the county to the levy court of said county, who are hereby authorized and directed to assess and levy the same on all the assessable property within the said city; and collect the same as other charges are collected from said city, any custom or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

See 1827, ch. 167, sec. 4, title, 'County Commissioners,' as to the expenses, ante page 1653.

AN Act for the Compensation of the Judges of Baltimore County Court.
1828, ch. 127.

Additional salaries.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That as a compensation for the additional services required of the judges of Baltimore county court, by an act, entitled, an act for the despatch of business in Baltimore county court, there shall be paid by the treasurer of the western shore, out of the moneys received by him from the clerk of Baltimore county court, under the eighth section of the said act, to each of the said judges, the sum of eight hundred dollars annually, by quarterly payments, in addition to their salaries as established by an act passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, an act to establish permanent salaries for the judges of the judicial districts of this state; Provided, the amount so paid over to the treasurer by the clerk as aforesaid shall be sufficient for that purpose, but should there be a deficiency in any year, then the said judges shall be entitled to the sum actually received by the treasurer during that year, to be equally divided among them, in addition to their permanent salaries as aforesaid, and to no more, and any excess of the Proviso.